

King's Cup

of Players: 3+

Equipment: Deck of Cards, 1 King's Cup

Difficulty Rating: Easy - Flip over a card and do what the table says.

Danger Rating: Easy- Pretty light except for the Waterfall, and beware the King's Cup.

Set-Up:

Place the "King's Cup" in the center of the table. Shuffle the cards and spread them out in a small circle surrounding the cup. The oldest player will go first.

Game Play:

Each player will draw a card on his/her turn. Consult the chart below and complete the corresponding instruction. If at any point a player draws a card which disconnects any segment of the circle from touching another, that player must drink.

Card Drawn Title Instruction

Card Drawn	Title	Instruction
2	You	Pick someone else to drink
3	Me	The person who draws the card drinks
4	Whores	All females drink
5	Social	Everyone drinks!
6	Dicks	All males drink
7	Heaven	The last person to raise their hand to the sky drinks
8	Thumb Master	Whenever the Thumb Master puts his thumb on the table, the last person to do place their thumb on the table drinks. Thumb Master can do this as often as they want. TM switches on another 8.
9	Bush-A-Rhyme	The player who drew picks a word, keep going around the circle rhyming with it, first person who can't think of a new word that rhymes drinks
10	Categories	The player who drew the card picks a category and names something in that category, the first person that repeats or cannot think of something in that category drinks. examples: styles of beer, car manufacturers, geometric shapes
J	Joke	The player who drew the card tells a joke, whoever laughs has to drink, if nobody laughs the joke teller has to drink
Q	Question	Pick a person and ask a question, the person has to respond with a question, continue answering with questions until someone messes up. They drink!
K	King's Cup	Pour a discretionary amount of your beverage into the King's Cup (mixing flavors/drinks is encouraged). When the 4th King is revealed, the person to reveal it must consume the entirety of the King's Cup and the game ends.
A	Waterfall	Everyone begins drinking at the same time. Others cannot stop drinking until the person to their right stops, starting with the person who drew the card, preferably arranged in descending vertical height.

Any good jokes?
